Disclosure to Client for HUD Housing Counseling Services The Affordable Housing of Marion, Indiana

NOTE: If you have an impairment, disability, language barrier, or otherwise require an alternative means of completing this form or accessing information about housing counseling, please talk to your housing counselor about arranging alternative accommodations.

Services Offered:

Affordable Housing Community Development Corporation (AHCDC) is a HUD-approved local housing counseling agency. We provide the following HUD one-on-one housing counseling: homeless assistance; rental topics; pre-purchase/homebuying; non-delinquency post-purchase; home maintenance and financial management for homeowners; and resolving or preventing mortgage delinquency or default counseling, and more.

Homeless Assistance Counseling: The counselor will complete a screening interview and collect as much contact information as possible for follow-up purposes. After the screening interview, the counselor will refer Homeless persons to appropriate resources for immediate assistance. Clients are encouraged to come back and meet the with counselor further to: identify potential resources for the client including HUD Rental programs and rent subsidy programs in the area, and how to apply for occupancy and rent subsidies; work with the client to identify the best possible Rental housing situation; refer the client to the appropriate resources. Clients receive a guide to rental housing in the area (which includes information about income limits, accessibility for persons with a disability, and utility policies at various facilities), as well as information about community resources, Fair Housing Law, and the availability of assistance to purchase a home.

Rental Topics Counseling: Any client contacting the agency for Rental assistance will have a one-on-one screening interview with a housing counselor. The counselor will: gather information about the client including family size, household income, and debt amounts; compute the client's gross annual income and housing/debt ratios to determine housing affordability; work with the client to identify barriers to affordable Rental housing and possible solutions; begin to set goals and objectives with the client considering the barriers and available resources; identify potential resources for the client including HUD Rental programs and rent subsidy programs in the area, and how to apply for occupancy and rent subsidies; work with the client to identify the best possible Rental housing situation; refer the client to the appropriate resources. Clients receive a guide to rental housing in the area (which includes information about income limits, accessibility for persons with a disability, and utility policies at various facilities), as well as information about community resources, Fair Housing Law, and the availability of assistance to purchase a home.

Financial Management Counseling: The counselor will: discuss housing concerns/questions with the client; gather information relating to client's current income and debt situation noting any changes from time of purchase; assist with developing a functional budget; identify community resources to assist the client; create an action plan to address difficulties; and track client progress unless the client withdraws from counseling.

Pre-purchase /Homebuying Counseling: Clients receive comprehensive one-on-one counseling, which covers the entire homebuying process from beginning to end. Participation in a Homebuyer Workshop is generally the first point of contact with pre-purchase clients. During the course, all clients who have not completed a one-on-one with a counselor are encouraged to schedule an individual appointment. AHCDC encourages online participation at www.ehomeamerica.org . AHCDA offers the in-person workshops as needed. The curriculum used teaches potential homeowners to: know their rights as renters, persons with disabilities, and in regard to Fair Housing law; use long-term money management strategies: budgeting, saving, debt management; and maintain good credit. It also covers the Home Buying Process in depth, providing information about: selecting and working with a Real Estate Agent; selecting a home (includes information about Energy Star appliances and products and Green Development); mortgage loan products and down payment assistance programs available (includes information about FHA products, Section 8 Homeownership Voucher Program); working with a lender (includes information about identifying and reporting predatory lending practices); getting a home inspection (includes providing a copy of "For Your Protection Get a Home Inspection" (HUD Form 92564) and "Ten Important Questions to Ask A Home Inspector"); expected closing costs and documents (includes instruction on how to read Good Faith Estimate, Truth in Lending, and HUD-1 Settlement Statement); tax benefits of homeownership; the advantages of pre-paying a mortgage loan; home maintenance and repairs; and what to look for when refinancing a mortgage loan.

Non-delinquency Post-purchase Counseling: The counselor will: discuss housing concerns/questions with the client; gather information relating to client's current income and debt situation noting any changes from time of purchase; assist with developing a functional budget; provide the client with materials on predatory lending and avoiding foreclosure with a contact number to call if problems arise; identify community resources to assist the client; create an action plan to address each client's individual housing situation; and track client progress unless the client withdraws from counseling.

Home Maintenance and Financial Management for Homeowners Counseling: The counselor will: discuss housing concerns/questions with the client; gather information relating to client's current income and debt situation noting any changes from time of purchase; assist with developing a functional budget; identify resources to assess the current energy efficiency of the homeowner's home and ways to reduce utility bills and make the home more energy efficient; identify community resources and home repair programs to assist the client; create an action plan to address housing situation; and track client progress unless the client withdraws from counseling.

Resolving or Preventing Mortgage Delinquency or Default Counseling:

Mortgage Delinquency/Default counseling will be provided (by phone or in person) as needed by a housing counselor. Default intervention counseling begins when a homeowner initiates contact with AHCDC because the homeowner's mortgage is in default or is expected to go into default without counseling intervention. The counselor will: obtain a release to speak with the mortgage lender; determine the amount and extent of the default, and identify the cause of the default; determine if the agency's resources can assist the client to meet the need or resolve the problem; work with the client to develop an immediate intervention plan; make contact with the lender to identify alternatives; determine whether the client might bring the account current within a time period and payment plan acceptable to the lender; identify, examine and select alternatives/ resources; ask the client to choose an achievable alternative utilizing the resources identified and education provided by the housing counselor.

Agency Conduct:

We administer our programs in conformity with local, state, and federal antidiscrimination laws, including the federal Fair Housing Act (42 USC 3600, et seq.). We serve all clients regardless of income, race, color, religion/creed, sex, national origin, age, family status, disability, or sexual orientation/gender identity. Employees of AHCDC are not attorneys. Any information provided is to be used as a resource and is based solely on the experiences and training of the counselors. No information provided should be regarded as legal advice.

Relationships with Industry Partners:

AHCDC has financial and exclusive relationships with specific industry partners including HUD, Indiana Housing and Community Development Authority, USDA Rural Development, and the City of Marion. We also partner with lenders, real estate agents, and other housing professionals to provide accurate information to clients and increase access to down-payment assistance programs. AHC may give information about a variety of professional services available in the area. While not always required by mortgage lenders, AHC highly recommends that all clients purchasing a home obtain a home inspection. AHC gives all clients a copy of the HUD Publications "For Your Protection Get a Home Inspection" and "Ten Important Questions to Ask a Home Inspector."

No Client Obligation:

There is no obligation to receive purchase, or use any product or service offered by AHCDC or any services of its industry partners or other party in exchange for your receiving HUD housing counseling services.

Alternatives:

As a condition of our services, and in alignment with meeting our counseling goals, and in compliance with HUD's Housing Counseling Program requirements, we may provide information on alternative services, programs, and products available to you, if applicable and known by our staff, such as: building, rehabilitating and selling properties; administering Individual Development Accounts; managing rental properties; packaging USDA Direct loans; and more.

Individual Development Accounts ("IDA"): IDA is a matched savings program designed to assist individuals in achieving selfsufficiency through financial capacity training and asset generation. Participants will get a 3 to 1 match (up to $6,000) usable towards buying a home, higher education, job training programs, or starting a small business. AHC administers approximately twenty (20) accounts annually. Each IDA program participant is offered budget counseling, credit counseling, and financial planning services with a HUD-certified Housing Counselor.

Tenant Based Rental Assistance ("TBRA"): TBRA is a program that provides rental assistance to formerly incarcerated individuals. AHC staff helps individuals, and their families obtain stable housing through assisting with the housing search, lease signing, the inspection process, and security deposits and monthly rental payments (See "Appendix I").

Fees:

AHCDC charges fees for credit reports and some types of counseling. There is no charge for foreclosure or homeless prevention counseling. The fee schedule is posted in AHCDC's office, and a copy is attached to this form. Clients will not be turned away because of a documented inability to pay.

I have read and received a copy of this disclosure.

Privacy Policy

Affordable Housing and Community Development Corporation (AHCDC) is committed to assuring the privacy of individuals and/or families who have contacted us for assistance. We realize that the concerns you bring to us are highly personal in nature. We assure you that all personal information shared orally and/or in writing will be managed within ethical and legal considerations. Additionally, we want you to understand how we use the personal information we collect about you. Please carefully review this notice as it describes our policy regarding the collection and disclosure of your nonpublic, personal information.

What is nonpublic, personal information?

- Information that identifies an individual personally and is not otherwise publically available information, such as your Social Security Number or demographic data such as your race and ethnicity
- Includes personal financial information such as credit history, income, employment history, financial assets, bank account information and financial debts

What personal information does AHCDC collect about you?

We collect personal information about you from the following sources:

- Information that you provide on applications, forms, email, or verbally
- Information about your transactions with us, our affiliates, or others
- Information we receive from your creditors or employment references
- Credit Reports

What categories of information do we disclose and to whom?

We may disclose the following personal information to Federal, State, and nonprofit partners for program review, monitoring, auditing, research, and/or oversight purposes, and/or any other pre-authorized individual and/or organization. The types of information we disclose are as follows:

- Information you provide on applications/forms or other forms of communication. This information may include your name, address, Social Security Number, employer, occupation, account numbers, assets, expenses, and income.
- Information about your transactions with us, our affiliates, or others; such as your account balance, monthly payment, payment history, and method of payment.
- Information we receive from a consumer credit reporting agency; such as your credit bureau reports, your credit and payment history, your credit scores, and/or your creditworthiness.
- We do not sell or rent your personal information to any outside entity.
- We may share anonymous, aggregated case file information; but this information may not be disclosed in a manner that would personally identify you in any way. This is done in order to evaluate our program, gather valuable research information, and/or design future programs.
- We may also disclose personal information about you to third parties as permitted by law.

How is your personal information secured?

We restrict access to your nonpublic personal information to AHCDC employees who need to know that information in order to perform their housing counseling duties. We maintain physical, electronic, and procedural safeguards that comply with federal regulations to guard your nonpublic personal information; and we train our staff to safeguard client information and prevent unauthorized access, disclosure, or use.

I acknowledge that I received, reviewed, and agree to AHCDC's Program Disclosures and Privacy Policy.
